

Tax slip overview and schedule

At BMO Wealth Management, we appreciate that tax season is an important time of year for investors. Depending on your investment holdings and account activity, you could receive a variety of income tax slips that you will need in order to prepare your annual tax return. In an effort to help simplify your tax preparation efforts, we are providing you with a brief overview of the various tax slips and supporting documents you may receive from BMO, and their expected mailing dates. Remember, it's important to ensure you receive all required tax slips before preparing your tax return to prevent having to file a T1-ADJ form to amend your tax return.

As a reminder, the deadline for most people to file their 2016 personal tax return is May 1, 2017 (extended to May 1 since April 30 falls on a Sunday).

Tax slip	Overview	Expected mailing
Non-registered accounts
T5 / Relevé 3 (Dividend and Interest Income)	The T5 reports investment income earned during the year from stocks, bonds or interest on credit balances. If you are a resident of the Province of Quebec, in addition to the T5 you will also receive a Relevé 3. If you held Split Share Corporations, an additional T5/R3/NR4 package will be mailed by the end of February. Your T5/R3 will be included with your BMO T5 Tax Reporting Package, which may also include the following accompanying reports: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Summary of Investment Income and Expenses: A summary of income and expenses posted to your account during 2016.</li> <li>• Trading Summary: A summary of security trading activity in your account during 2016.</li> </ul>	By February 28, 2017
