Quarter 1, 2023

For this quarter's newsletter, I thought I would do something a little different. Instead of sharing my own words of wisdom about investing or the economy, I thought I would share various quotes from, for the most part, famous investors and in a couple of cases, quotes that are useful for life in general. I hope you would agree with me that is a nice break from all the news about the stock market that we are bombarded with on a regular basis. Enjoy.

- Learning is not attained by chance, it must be sought for with ardor and attended to with diligence. - Abigail Adams
- Invest in as much of yourself as you can. You are your own biggest asset by far. - Warren Buffett
- The wise investor recognizes that success is a process of continually seeking answers to new questions. - Sir John Templeton
- The most useful piece of learning for the uses of life is to unlearn what is untrue. – Antisthenes
- The intelligent investor is a realist who sells to optimists and buys from pessimists. - Benjamin Graham
- Success comes from curiosity, concentration, perseverance and self-criticism. - Albert Einstein
- People who succeed in the stock market also accept periodic losses, setbacks, and unexpected occurrences. Calamitous drops do not scare them out of the game. - Peter Lynch

- We don't have to be smarter than the rest. We have to be more disciplined than the rest. - Warren Buffett
- Happiness is not something ready made. It comes from your own actions. - Dalai Lama
- A market downturn doesn't bother us. It is an opportunity to increase our ownership of great companies with great management at good prices. - Warren Buffett
- Courage taught me no matter how bad a crisis gets ... any sound investment will eventually pay off. - Carlos Slim Helu
- Know what you own, and know why you own it. - Peter Lynch
- The measure of intelligence is the ability to change - Albert Einstein
- The trick is not to learn to trust your gut feelings, but rather to discipline yourself to ignore them. Stand by your stocks as long as the fundamental story of the company hasn't changed. - Peter Lynch
- If I had eight hours to chop down a tree, I'd spend six hours sharpening my axe. - Abraham Lincoln
- You must force yourself to consider opposing arguments. Especially when they challenge your best-loved ideas. - Charlie Munger
- Markets are constantly in a state of uncertainty and flux, and money is made by discounting the obvious and betting on the unexpected. - George Soros
- Invest at the point of maximum pessimism. - Sir John Templeton
- Energy and persistence conquer all things. - Benjamin Franklin
- It's far better to buy a wonderful company at a fair price than a fair company at a wonderful price. - Warren Buffett
- A lot of people with high IQs are terrible investors because they've got terrible temperaments. You need to keep raw, irrational emotion under control. - Charlie Munger
