

The U.S. election is quickly approaching. To provide some perspective on the November 8, 2016 election, this excellent U.S. Presidential Election Primer written by the BMO Capital Markets Economics Department is worth a read.

The U.S. Presidential Election Primer provides an overview of the electoral voting system for U.S. elections, outlines the campaign platforms of Hilary Clinton and Donald Trump, and discusses why the political and policy uncertainty surrounding the election could lead to a bumpy ride for financial markets and investors over the coming months.
