

Home Care and Nursing Home Costs

As our population ages, one of the greatest fears experienced is being able to afford and get access to adequate health care. Preparation is key to successfully navigate these inevitable challenges.

This excellent report by BMO Wealth Institute discusses the costs of assistance for daily living activities including in home care, as well as retirement and nursing home costs. It also offers suggestions on how to better prepare for the inevitable need for assistance as we age.

The report is worth sharing with spouses, partners and other family members to get the conversations started.

As always, please contact us if we can be of assistance.

Sincerely,
